

Thursday, March 7th

5:30-6:30pm Lecture

“A Conversation with Kyriakos Mitsotakis”

ASEAN Auditorium, The Fletcher School

The Behrakis Family Endowed Lecture Series is honored to welcome Kyriakos Mitsotakis on Thursday, March 7th. President Mitsotakis has been Opposition Leader in the Hellenic Parliament and President of Nea Demokratia since January 2016.

He became a Member of Parliament in 2004 and served as Minister of Administrative Reform and e-Governance from 2013 to 2015. Prior to his career in politics, he spent a decade in the private sector as CEO of NBG Venture Capital (part of the National Bank of Greece), Financial Analyst with Chase Investment Bank, Consultant with McKinsey & Company, and Senior Investment Officer with Alpha Ventures.

Ian Johnstone, Dean ad interim of The Fletcher School will host, and Professor George Alogoskoufis will moderate the conversation.

The Behrakis Family Endowed Lecture Series, within the Constantine G. Karamanlis Chair in Hellenic and European Studies, is presented annually to promote the understanding of Greece's domestic and international affairs.